

Studio 55
November 2024

Hello Dancers and Parents, I hope you all had a wonderful Halloween filled with lots of yummy treats...on to Thanksgiving! Up until now, technique and proper placement has been a huge focus in all of our classes. This month we will begin learning choreography for all of our recital routines. Attendance will be crucial for our dancers during the next few months. Please notify Katie if your dancer will be absent.

Lobby Policies

Parents, while we love that you are able to sit in our rooms to view class, make sure to keep the volume and movement to a minimum. Please remember this is a learning environment and too many distractions can be harmful to your dancers progress. Ideally, we would like to keep our classrooms open for viewing all season long, but this may not be able to happen if the distractions continue to disrupt our dancers learning.

All parents should remain on the carpeted areas and dancers should remain on the dance floor unless changing shoes or instructed by their teacher.

Thank you for your cooperation!
