

Bring your Prom Dress Saturday in Aurora

Each branch of West collecting for seven-ven away hat each canned good that will be donated to a local food pantry. The dresses are free and will be given away in as-is condition; one to each girl. Stevens Cleaners, with two locations in Aurora, has donated discount coupons for dry cleaning services.

A volunteer seamstress will be present at the April 5 event to help girls decide if a dress would be able to be altered to fit them. Alterations will be the responsibility of the wearer.

The event will take place in the Multipurpose Room on the library's lower level. Because of space limitations, girls may have to wait to enter the room.

There will be one try-on room available, so the library asks that girls coming for dresses be patient.

For more information about "Say Yes to the Prom Dress," call Amy Roth at (630) 264-4125.

Those who wish to donate dresses can drop them off at any library location through March 28.

dependen- al need, s or sur- es in the applicant a degree

n form, s Moth- 1274, St. n: Schol- hairper- mother-lications pril 1.

ne Kane Society and Bird ay, April k Young Batavia. ot by the e Road, south of and 1½ ll Road. l be set t water- optional follows. walk at t Satur- through- gram is ewcom- ill leader uestions sit kanelub: An- draiser ur order e dozen s with ged in a t-sheath 20. Rose a.m. to 5 , at Bak-

Kiwanis Club meets at noon every Tuesday at the PNC Bank building, at 2600 E. Main St., St. Charles. If you are interested in joining Kiwanis, call John Radman at (630) 443-0391 for membership information.

Batavia Women in Business: Batavia Women in Business will host Felicia Slattery, a communication consultant, speaker and coach specializing in training busy professional to succeed by communicating effectively, speaking on "Credibility on Social Media and Cash Flow" from 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, April 8.

When you effectively communicate your credibility you will have new prospects lining up to discuss business with you. Now you can discover the proven strategies to generate real results by increasing your credibility in the eyes of your prospects. Join the Batavia Women in Business as they host Felicia Slattery, a communication consultant, speaker, and coach specializing in training busy professionals to succeed by communicating effectively.

The program will be held at Prairie Landing Golf Course, 2325 Longest Drive, West Chicago. Lunch will be served at approximately noon. Admission is $25 for members and $30 for nonmembers. Visit bataviawib.com.

Newcomers and Neighbors Club: Join the Fox Valley Newcomers and Neighbors Club Civic & Service committee and members for a relaxing evening watching the Steel Beam

PHOTOS COURTESY OF SCOTT PINER

Magical evening

Rotary Club of St. Charles President Bob Brown, above left, with wife Diane, past president, attend the March 9 benefit dinner and magic show with magician Scott Piner, along with Rotary Club of St. Charles member Bob Miller and wife Carol. It was Piner's third year performing for the benefit, which was held in the intimate upper room at Villa Verone, which donates all the food for the event. At left, Kathy Melone, Rotary Club of Geneva member, welcomes Piner, who is Rotary Club of St. Charles member, at the annual "Magical Evening" benefit dinner and silent auction.