Benita Fields Land, Attorney-At-Law Of Counsel

---

Benita Fields Land is a licensed attorney in the Commonwealth of Kentucky, and the Eastern District of Kentucky. Ms. Land received her Bachelor's Degree in English Literature from Eastern Kentucky University and her Juris Doctorate from Salmon P. Chase College of Law. While attending Chase College of Law, Ms. Land clerked for Magistrate Judge Gregory Wehrman in the Eastern District of Kentucky.

After law school, Ms. Land worked as an associate for the Law Offices of B. Dahlenburg Bonar, P.S.C., where she focused on labor and employment litigation cases. Specifically, several of these cases stemmed from retaliation, harassment and wrongful termination of employees. Ms. Land was also involved in class action litigation cases and a qui tam action while at B. Dahlenburg Bonar.

Due to the unique nature of the cases, Ms. Land was involved with the National Employment Lawyers Association and the Kentucky Employment Lawyers Association. While in Kentucky, Ms. Land was also actively involved with the Northern Kentucky Bar Association, specifically the Women Lawyers Section. Ms. Land continues to be a member of the Kentucky Bar Association.

Benita's practice concentrates on the following Employment Litigation areas:

- Wrongful termination
- Discrimination
- Sexual harassment
- Hostile workplace environment
- Whistleblower, and
- Retaliation

In 2005, Ms. Land moved to Houston, Texas, where she worked as a legal recruiter for two years. Recently, Ms. Land has rejoined the Law Offices of Bonar, Borland & Bucher, LLC., working remotely from Houston, Texas.
