Experienced Corporate Litigator Joins
Halloran Farkas + Kittila LLP

Wilmington, Del. – August 1, 2017 – James G. (Jay) McMillan has joined the Wilmington, Delaware office of national corporate and litigation boutique Halloran Farkas + Kittila LLP as a partner effective August 1, 2017.

Mr. McMillan concentrates his practice in complex corporate and commercial matters, with a particular focus on litigation in the Delaware Court of Chancery, related to mergers and acquisitions, director and officer liability, stockholder suits and business valuation matters, involving Delaware corporations and limited liability companies. He has more than 17 years of experience in state and federal courts in Delaware and elsewhere, including in contract, patent, environmental and bankruptcy-related matters. His clients include firms in the financial services, technology, energy, commercial real estate, online retail and insurance industries, based throughout the United States, as well as in Europe, the Middle East, Africa and Asia. He frequently works with executive management and expert consultants on highly sophisticated financial, economic and technical issues.

Before joining HFK, Mr. McMillan practiced in the Delaware offices of Pepper Hamilton LLP and Montgomery, McCracken, Walker & Rhoads. He also practiced with Bouchard, Margules & Friedlander, and he began his legal career with the Wilmington firm Morris, Nichols, Arsht & Tunnell. He is a graduate of Haverford College, holds a Master of Arts degree from the University of Chicago, and a J.D. degree from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Ted Kittila, the managing partner of Halloran Farkas + Kittila LLP, said “We are delighted to have Jay join our growing firm. With his depth of knowledge and experience, he is an invaluable addition to our practice in Delaware and nationally.”

In addition to its office in Wilmington, Delaware, Halloran Farkas + Kittila LLP has offices in Washington D.C., Palo Alto, California and Jackson Hole, Wyoming.
