

CASA CORNELIA
LAW CENTER

Job Announcement Programming Director

Casa Cornelia Law Center (CCLC) is a public interest law firm providing quality pro bono legal services to victims of human and civil rights violations, with a primary commitment to the indigent within the immigrant community in Southern California. Our legal services include representation to those in removal proceedings or seeking affirmative immigration relief including asylum seekers, abused and abandoned children, and immigrant victims of domestic violence, human trafficking, and other serious crimes who are eligible under U.S. law. CCLC provides pro bono representation through support of volunteers, such as private attorneys, law students and interpreters/translators under the mentorship of CCLC attorneys.

Job Description: The Programming Director (“PD”) is a manager focused on program sustainability, development, and creation of programs designed to support the work of the firm. The PD ensures that necessary support programs are examined, planned, and executed in furtherance of the firm’s mission and vision consistent with the directives of the Board of Directors, under the direction and supervision of the Executive Director. The PD oversees the firm’s pro bono program for attorneys and law graduates, internship program for students, the volunteer interpreter and translator program, the client support services program, and data collection and maintenance, and supervises the relevant senior staff, reception and contractors.

Qualifications: The following are required for appointment as the PD:

- a) A commitment to social justice and the mission of Casa Cornelia;
- b) A Juris Doctorate degree from an ABA-Accredited law school;
