STEWARDSHIP

Gratitude in Action: Our Way of Life

We are disciples, stewards of the Lord. We have experienced personally, Jesus, the Risen Christ in our lives and as a result have chosen to surrender ourselves completely to Him. Our lives and the way in which we live them, through the workings of the Holy Spirit within us, give greater meaning to our prayers, the work of our hands and our love of both God and neighbor.

This disposition of our will meeting and joining with that of our Heavenly Father is a perfect unity, yet, it is not accomplished without great effort and perseverance. Our conversion of mind and heart has taken place, we have committed ourselves to the Lord and His plan for us, however, this commitment is not expressed in a single action or even several actions. This commitment is expressed in an entire way of life, begun with our conversion and lived out for as long as God allows us this time on earth.

This way of life as a disciple, a steward, has its center in the Eucharist, its source of strength.

*In the words of Pope Francis, "The Lord in the Eucharist makes us follow his path, that of service, of sharing, of giving—and what little we have, what little we are, if shared, becomes wealth, because the power of God, which is that of love, descends into our poverty to transform it. Let us ask ourselves...do I let myself be transformed by him? Do I let the Lord who gives himself to me, guide me to come out more and more from my little fence, to get out and be not afraid to give, to share, to love him and others?"*¹

Our way of life as a disciple, a steward IS gratitude in action.
