

2020 SECA ELECTION CANCELLED NOTICE

SECA WILL NOT HOLD 2020 ELECTION.

All of SECA's candidates won their position by acclamation because they were unopposed (more positions available than candidates running). Therefore, there are no SECA candidates to vote for in 2020.

DELEGATE WINNERS BY ACCLAMATION

2020 NEA Delegate (SECA Funded)

- Tina McClory
- Rosie Guerrido
(President – Automatic delegate)

2020 FEA Delegates (SECA Funded)

- Abby Negron
- Stacyann Moncrieffe
- Julie Dellarco
- Tina McClory
- Rosie Guerrido
(President – Automatic delegate)

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF LABOR OFFICE OF LABOR-MANAGEMENT STANDARDS GUIDANCE ON UNCONTESTED ELECTIONS

Uncontested Elections

An election of officers or delegates in which the act would normally require the use of a secret ballot need not be held by secret ballot when all candidates are unopposed, and the following conditions are met:

- The union provides a reasonable opportunity for nominations; ✓
- Write-in votes are not permitted, as evidenced by a provision in the constitution and bylaws, a properly adopted resolution, or established union practice; and ✓
- The union complies with all other provisions of title IV. ✓

ELECTION CANCELLED