

NSBEA Scholarship Application – 2021-2022

ANTHONY BLUM $1,000 SCHOLARSHIP

All Documents Due by March 16, 2021

This scholarship is awarded to a business education student enrolled at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln who is or will be student teaching during 2021-2022. Students applying for this scholarship MUST be members of BOTH NSBEA and NBEA.

Name: _____

Address: _____

Phone Number _____

E-Mail _____

University Name: University of Nebraska – Lincoln

When (semester) are you student teaching? _____

List the school name and cooperating teacher(s) names of where you are or will be student teaching (if known).

What is your current GPA? _____

NSBEA Membership Date Joined _____ NBEA Membership Number _____

(If you are already a member OR the date you mailed your membership.)

On separate sheets of paper, address the following four questions. Please limit each response to one typed, double-spaced page.

1. What extra-curricular activities have you been involved in? (Include offices held, honors won, memberships, etc.)
2. Financial need is one factor in the selection process. Briefly describe your financial situation.
3. Describe any experiences you have had dealing with teenagers/students.
4. Of all the careers available to you, why did you decide to become a business teacher?

Please send 1) all parts of this application, 2) a one-page resume, and 3) two letters of recommendation to:

Pat Lutt

Wayne State College, 1111 Main Street, Rm 111J, Gardner Hall

Wayne, NE 68787

palutt1@wsc.edu

(Documents can be sent to the above email address. Indicate Anthony Blum Scholarship in the subject line)

The winner will be notified in April, and the scholarship will be awarded Wednesday evening June 9, 2021 at the Nebraska Career Education Conference, June 7-10, 2021 in Kearney, Nebraska during the NSBEA/DPE Banquet.