Fall Bazaar & VENDOR SHOW

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 8

Help us make this Bazaar
a huge success!!!

Our Annual Bazaar and Bake Sale will be October 8 in the downstairs fellowship hall. We will also be serving a $5 meal deal of sloppy joes, chips, bar, & drink. We are tying this with a Vendor Show of 22 local vendors at our church the same day to help drive traffic to our Bazaar.

You can help by:

- Making crafts for the Bazaar
- Making baked goods for the Bazaar bake sale
- Making baked goods to sell with our $5 meal

The Bazaar crafts, baked goods, and $5 meal are where we make our money for church projects, so please get crafting and baking like crazy! We expect a big turnout!

EXTENDED BY POPULAR DEMAND

We have made 60 T-shirts! Members wore their t-shirts for the first time during the West Fest Brat Stand, representing CPC to the community.

If you have not ordered yet, you have until the October 8 Vendor Show & Bazaar to order!

That's one more reason to attend the Vendor Show & Bazaar.

PONDERINGS FROM PASTOR CATHIE

As we started to focus on Luke, we realized that he writes in different literary styles. The initial four verses of the book are written in single Greek format. The language is formal and refined. It changes later. In a way, Luke tells the same basic story. In Luke's remembrance of Jesus, we find the emphasis on God's compassion as Jesus reaches out to live and work among the marginal members of society.

During October, we will find ourselves primarily in Luke's scriptures 17:1-10, 17:11-19, 18:1-8, 18: 9-14, and 19:1-10. I encourage you to spend time with Luke paying attention to scriptures we do and do not cover in chapters 17, 18, and 19.

What is on the agenda for October?

On the first Sunday of October, we have a full day. It is World Communion Sunday. We will have a variety of breads for communion along with an invitation to the Lord's Table. Rev. Donna Monteith will commission Carrie Leopold and Pastor Cathie as representatives to Chogoria Presbytery.

Carrie and I along with others from our presbytery will begin our journey to Chogoria on October 3rd. We will not actually arrive in Chogoria until Wednesday the 5th. We will return late on Monday, October 17th. We would all appreciate your prayers. Thank you.

At 2:30 p.m. on October 2nd, we will gather on the grass outside the church and join together in blessings for our pets. You can bring a dog or cat, or other pets or a photo of your pets with you. We do ask that you have your pet on a leash or in a crate. We will have treats for the pets and for the humans. Come and join us, friends, neighbors, and church members.

By the time you read this Pondering, it will already officially be Autumn. When does it start? According to the Northern Equinox, it began Thursday, September 22 (the day I am writing this), and ends on Wednesday, December 21, 2022. Fall reminds me that while we may have more warm days coming, we are moving toward winter. Truly, I enjoy the variety of seasons we have here in North Dakota.

This is just the start for each day at Community Presbyterian Church! While Carrie and I are in Chogoria, YOU ALL will continue your life at the church. Dave Ruhnke will be our Guest Preacher on October 9th, and our Guest Preacher on October 16th will be Adam Montgomery. There are five Sundays in October, so when we come back, we will be ready to see you again and for church on the 23rd and on the 30th.

Please pay attention to who has signed up and where the gaps may be for the various volunteer opportunities as our volunteers are vital! Sometimes it feels like we are always asking for help. In truth, it does require many people to help our church to be vital. This is God's house, not just ours. It does take all of us to continue having a Presbyterian Church in this place.

One other item for you while I am gone: I have arranged others to be available, should you need an "on-call" Pastor. There are three people who will work together, as needed:

Pastor Paul Campbell

712-490-0961

Rev. Donna Monteith

701-866-3882

Gayle Thostenson, Deacons
701-412-6387

Grace and Peace,
Pastor Cathie

A BLESSING OF THE ANIMALS

On October 2nd at 2:30 p.m., CPC will be holding a service of the blessing of the animals. The blessing of animals is a way for our congregation to show witness to the love, care, and concern for all of God's creations.

Whether you consider them your "fur babies" or they are livestock that aid in your livelihood, all animals are a gift and blessing from God. Join us to praise God for all that he has created for us. The blessing will be held outdoors to ensure the comfort of all pets/animals who attend.

Treats will be provided for both humans and pets/animals. Please make sure that all animals are leashed to ensure their own and everyone else's safety. If you have questions, please contact the church office.

The elders to help serve communion on October 2, 2022 will be Laurie Elhard, Kevin Galt, Yvonne Hummel, and Gayle Thostenson.

The financial report was read, discussed, and received.

The Sunday worship start time at Community Presbyterian Church will be at 10:00 a.m. every Sunday morning. During the summer months, fellowship will be held before the service. During the fall, winter, and spring months, fellowship will be held after the worship service.

Communion Preparation was discussed. Six groups of two people are needed to help with communion prep throughout the year. Session was instructed on the proper protocol to prepare the sacraments.

Committee reports:

Christian Education: Rally Sunday was held on September 11th with Sunday School starting at 9:00 a.m. A picnic/potluck was held after worship. Sunday school activities included music, crafts, and Bible study. Help will be needed for our annual children's Xmas program, so please consider helping out this year.

CPC's mobile media center was used twice by Christian Education in the last couple months. It was used mainly as a means of showing the view of a personal laptop to a small group, once for viewing a movie and once for viewing YouTube music videos. Both times the center was found to be movable (a 2-person job), easy to use, and very functional. An extension cord and HDMI cord have been hung in the back of the center for users' convenience when using a laptop with a HDMI port. Kudos to the Session for purchasing this center and Lee Dobrinz for the idea. It is a very useful tool.

- Kevin Galt

Deacons: In September, one communion visit occurred. Garden flowers continue to be shared, and visits continue to be made. Two prayer quilts will be distributed. If you haven't already, please watch for these in the narthex, tie a bow, and say a prayer for our loved ones.

- Gayle Thostenson

Nominating: The Nominating Committee is in the process of speaking to those members on committees that could renew for another term. We have also pinpointed spots we need to fill. An October newsletter article has been written keying in on the Trustee Committee. It thanks Larry Peihl and Dwight Steffen for their two consecutive terms. It also explains the duties of the Trustee Committee and asks members to consider serving on this committee when the Nominating Committee calls on them.

- Cheryl Montgomery

Personnel: Pastor Cathie has the privilege of traveling with a contingency to attend the Chogoria Presbytery's (Kenya) Centennial in October. She will depart on October 3 and return on October 17. The Deacons will be on call for spiritual care during this time. Thank you, Deacons, for your assistance. Worship will continue with guest preachers Dave Ruhnke (October 9) and Adam Montgomery (October 16). Safe travels, Pastor Cathie!

- Adam Montgomery

Service & Fellowship: The Service and Fellowship Committee has had a busy month. We have made about 60 shirts so far, so thank you to everyone who has purchased one to support and promote our church! We were able to hold a Craft N' Creation event of making bird feeders with Melissa Eiter. It was great to see approximately 10 people there joining in fellowship. If there are any additional items for future events, please let Melissa Engebretson or Laurie Elhard know. Our first Vendor Show with the Fall Bazaar is coming along well, and we are working on advertising for this event and looking for volunteers to help. If you can donate anything or volunteer your time, please see the sign-up sheets in the narthex or talk to someone on the Service and Fellowship Committee.

- Melissa Engebretson

Trustees: The new custodial cleaning company, "At Your Service", started cleaning for our church on September 2nd. Trustees started replacing outdoor perimeter lights and resetting the automatic timer for fall and winter hours. There is a small hole in the west parking lot that will be repaired before the winter season hits.

- Bob Kozojed

Worship: The Worship Committee worked on creating a step-by-step guide for Communion Prep. All committee members present were trained in the process. The committee discussed going back to passing communion and the way the elements are presented. It was decided to keep it as is for now and to revisit in a few months. Also, for Sunday service the committee agreed to start using paper bulletins again and moving away from using PowerPoint. Instead, the PowerPoint would be used more as a visual aid to enhance worship. The Presbyterian Outlook will be the Advent Devotional for 2022. The committee is working on what format is the best way of getting it out to the congregation. Upcoming special services: October 2, World Communion Sunday (10:00 a.m. service) and Blessing of the Animals (outdoor 2:30 p.m. service).

- Laurie Elhard

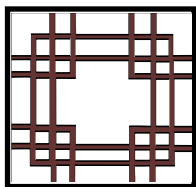

No reports: Mission, Stewardship

Meeting closed with prayer by Moderator Cathie Bishop at 8:04 p.m.

PRESBYTERIAN SQUARES BIBLE STUDY

Spiritual Gifts - do you really even have one? You sure do! God has blessed every one of us with spiritual gifts or talents that serve Him. Our Bible study this year will discuss more about our talents and how to not let someone else shoot us down. We need to build up one another in what we can do!

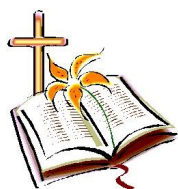

Please join us on Wednesdays, September 28, and November 2, to learn more about spiritual gifts. We will begin at 5:30 p.m. with a light meal at the church. Please bring your own water or pop and a dish to share.

Can't make it? Vicki Peihl can email the study out to you. Just let her know via vrpeihl@gmail.com. It will be great to see everyone in person once again!

LADIES CIRCLE

Ladies, join us for Tuesday Afternoon Ladies Circle in the narthex. If you like, bring a sack lunch and have fellowship at 12:30 p.m. Otherwise, come ready to begin Bible study at 1:00 p.m. Coffee and treats will be shared later.

The study this year is Celebrating Sabbath: Accepting God's Gift of Rest and Delight by Carol M. Bechtel. Sabbath reminds us to honor God who honors us by giving us a day each week to reset our pace, our priorities, and our lives. In this study, Carol M. Bechtel leads us through a study of Sabbath over nine lessons. Participants will consider Sabbath anew and will come away renewed.

CANTATA PRACTICE TO BEGIN

Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes with the morning.

Psalm 30:5b

The message of Christmas is one of deep and abiding joy! This is the message of this year's cantata in Lloyd Larson's Joy to All the World! A Christmas Celebration. It is a message filled with the assurance that no matter how difficult the journey may seem; no matter how hopeless the situation may feel; no matter how long and dark the night may be, joy will eventually come.

All vocal ranges are needed. Music cds will be provided for individual practice. Practices will occur most Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m., third Wednesdays (Session meeting nights) at 5:45 p.m. Performance date is planned for Sunday, December 11 during worship.

For more details, see the CPC calendar or music director Kevin Galt.

MISSION FOCUS

Thank you to everyone who donated items for PATH in September. These young people who have been in foster care lack a support system for furnishing their first apartments. Thank you for being that support system, and showing them that someone cares.

In October, we will be raising funds for the food program at Mpangua school in Kenya. Mpangua is located in a mission area of Chogoria. Because it is so poor, and separated by a river from the larger community, they did not have a school within walking distance for the children. One young woman, who managed to graduate from high school, started teaching her young neighbors under a tree. Northern Plains Presbytery worked with Chogoria Presbytery to build an elementary school for the children. (Remember the cardboard "bricks?") The children still walk a long distance to school every day, and count on the noon meal served at the school. It is a very poor area, and the recent drought has increased the lack of food in their homes. Last year, the school ran out of food long before the school year was over.

We hope to provide funds to supplement the amount of food the school has for this school year. Kenya does not have an equivalent to the USDA that provides hot lunch for the students. The school receives some funding to buy rice, corn, and oil, which is prepared by volunteer parents and others to feed the children. In good times, the parents supplement the groceries with donations from their resources, but because of the drought, this cannot happen this year.

On October 2nd, during worship, we will be commissioning Pastor Cathie and Carrie Leopold to travel to Kenya with others from our presbytery to help Chogoria Presbyteries celebrate their centennial. During their time there, Carrie hopes to upload videos for our Minutes for Mission, showing us the Mpangua school program.

IS GOD CALLING YOU?

The Nominating Committee would like to extend a sincere thank you to Trustees Larry Peihl and Dwight Steffen. Larry and Dwight have served two consecutive three-year terms as Trustees. The Nominating Committee will be looking for two members to fill those seats.

The Trustees are responsible for the maintenance of the church's physical property. This includes overseeing the janitors. In addition, it entails working with the fire marshal and seeing to it that safety reports on the fire alarm system, sprinkler system, and elevator are completed and acted upon when necessary. The maintenance of the church also requires the trustees to: contract with a snow removal company, an elevator inspection/repair service, and a pest elimination company. Finally, the trustees maintain the grounds of the property by mowing and spraying the lawn, including spraying of the sidewalks and parking lots to control weeds.

It's a group Trustee effort to maintain the church's physical property. Please consider filling one of these spots when the Nominating Committee calls you.

WEST FEST THANK YOU!

Many thanks go to all those who donated their time, money, food, and goodies towards our West Fest Food Stand. We raised our $1,161 for next year's Youth Kenya Mission Trip! More importantly, we shared fellowship with one another as well as God's love and CPC hospitality with more than a couple hundred of our neighbors.

YEAR-TO-DATE GIVING UPDATE

God wants us; He wants the givers, not just the gifts from the givers. He doesn't need our gifts, but we have a need to give. God wants us to honor Him through our faithful and generous giving. When we make giving a priority week after week, He is honored.

INVOLVEMENT OPPORTUNITIES

Did you know there is an elite group within the church that does communion prep the first Sunday of the month? Currently it is looking for more individuals who would like to be trained on how to do this important task. If you are interested in becoming part of this group, please talk with Laurie Elhard, Worship Committee Liaison.

In addition, CPC is always looking for more individuals to sign up and take on different roles to make our worship service a success. Each Sunday we need people to cover the following areas: liturgist, special music, usher, Power-Point operator, and sound board operator. Each of these positions have different skills that are required. Which one can you could fulfill? If interested in any of these opportunities, please reach out to either Pastor Cathie or Laurie Elhard.

DEACONS

If anyone in the congregation is hospitalized or needs a visit, please contact the Deacons. If anyone in the congregation would like home communion, please contact Gayle Thostenson.
