

C. Kevin Hayes

A seasoned lobbyist practicing in the areas of governmental relations, issues management, administrative rules and regulatory issues. He has successfully represented professional and trade associations, corporations and coalitions before the Louisiana Legislature and state agencies.

Prior to becoming a lobbyist, he spent four years as General Counsel for the Senate Committee on Commerce, Consumer Protection, and International Affairs. As attorney to the committee, he drafted legislation and amendments, advised legislators regarding the committee's subject matter jurisdiction and assisted the chairman on procedural issues during committee hearings.

Kevin has been extremely active in both the Louisiana State Bar Association and the Baton Rouge Bar Association. He is Past-President of the Baton Rouge Bar Association having served as President, President-Elect, Treasurer and Secretary after having been elected five times to its Board of Directors. He is the recipient of the 2002 Judge Joseph Keogh Memorial Award and also was elected Chair of the Young Lawyers Section.

He serves the Louisiana State Bar Association as the elected member of the Board of Governors Fifth District, board liaison to the Public Information Committee, member of the Bar Governance Committee, and board member of the Louisiana Center for Law and Civic Education. The Louisiana State Bar Association honored Kevin with the Outstanding Young Lawyer of Louisiana Award in 2001 and in 2014 he was selected as a Fellow by the Louisiana State Bar Foundation.

Kevin was named to the list of Forty under 40 by the Baton Rouge Business Report and is Past-President of the Association of Louisiana Lobbyists.

He enjoys spending time with two children Emi, 16 and Charlie, 13.
