

THE NEXT STEP ©

Troy Clark, Ph.D.

The next step you take
May be the one
That turns the corner
To success well done.

The next effort you make
May be the key
That unlocks the door
To your victory.

Disappointments come and go
In the course of life's ebb-n-flow.
A better way is learned for sure
Through a failure we must endure.

While going through a darkest hour
Weakness becomes your greatest power.
Realize here what you always knew.
Strength is gained, by not giving up on YOU.

A song, a memory, a Scripture,
Lets us know we are not alone.
For others, too, have passed this way,
Who overcame, to find prosperity their home.

Have you been knocked down again?
Alas! Nothing can crush your will to win.
Stepping stones are the mistakes we make
To the Winner's Circle, all may partake.

See each day as a journey venture
Into wonderlands of new adventure.
See life's ups-n-downs from point A to B
As a fun ride from here to rich destiny.

See the graveyard
As man's final resting place.
See your time today as precious
In this leg of life's race.

Your greatest days are yet ahead,
So leave behind your fear & dread.
Fire up your desire! Increase your faith!
Mature your skill. It's not too late!

The world awaits your special gift,
To share your joy; its spirit to uplift.
Become the best you. Don't be a fake.
Success gets closer, the next step you take.
