Why We're Different

- Small company with an emphasis on direct communication with clients (no 'outsourcing' of customer service).
- Small company with flexible pricing, terms, and shipping to meet client needs.
- Focus on sustainability and fair trade—one of the only companies with a full line of Fair Trade USA certified Coconut Ingredients.
- Direct relationship with coconut farmers and cooperatives in Sri Lanka and Indonesia, ensuring a product of equal quality as Filipino products for a substantially lower price.
- Relationship with local suppliers and ensuring fairness and equitability for the communities in developing nations is a central part of our ethos and values.
- Concentrated focus on coconut ingredients only, and therefore able to navigate market fluctuations more accurately, keep up to date on newest developments pertaining to organic coconut products, and tailor all actions around this specific niche product and market.
- No retail brand, ensuring that we do not directly compete with our bulk clients.
