Shalom Saints!

Congratulations Church Family, we reached our 10th Church & Pastoral Anniversary celebration on October 7, 2017. Our theme for this awesome journey is found in Matthew 19:26, "With men this is impossible: but with God all things are possible." What a wonderful time of accomplishment and jubilation we all experienced as we came together on Saturday, October 14, 2017 to celebrate this event at the Washington-Dulles Hilton in Herndon, Virginia.

We couldn't have achieved this goal without Gods' help. Despite the obstacles which we endured, God brought us through them all, giving us great victory. Learning to hold on to His unchanging hand has catapulted this ministry forward into a place of tremendous enlargement. (Isaiah 54:2-3).

Romans 8:31 says, "What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?" Thank you Lord, for sustaining us through the fires, floods and winds of life, and growing us into a ministry of unselfish servant-hood to the "least of these" (Matthew 25:40).

Let us continue to move forward unto the next assignment or challenge that the Lord has prepared for us because He causes us to triumph and reign in the mist of our enemies. Hallelujah! (Psalms 110:2).

Remember what the Apostle Paul said to the Philippians Church, "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me." (Philippians 4:13). Father, we look forward to receiving the benefits and promises that only you can provide for those who obey and place their trust and confidence in you.

Power of Prayer

“A Promise is a Promise”

Minister Hermeka Ray

The men's prayer breakfast in July was a powerful time in the Lord. Bishop Johnson spoke mightily on God's promise to His people and how believers have to remain connected, know they're connected and in some case, 'test' their connection. This leads to a compelling question...is your connection hot, lukewarm or cold? Is the connection simply following a routine of what one perceives to be holiness but only to find out it's dressed up and superficial? If we recall as kids (or even our own kids), we make promises and the kids will remind you until you deliver. It is a committed word or expectation that must be honored, however there are times that we've fallen short or have been the recipient of someone who didn't deliver on their promise. I don't want to be the one who disappoints, yet I know that I was guilty at times through disobedience, not waiting on God, figuring out on my own and number of other things that I'm sure but can't remember. When you know that this is the position you've fallen into, it's time to get reconnected!

How can we reconnect with God and our fellow brethren? The answers are quite simple...

1. Read your Word and pray daily
2. Don't be a "fairweather" friend with inconsistency – commit to God and the ministry
3. Ask God for opportunities to use you for service for the benefit of others
4. Fellowship with like-minded individuals who share the same beliefs (this is important)
5. If you are not joined to a ministry and are a member of the church, join ASAP.

Getting connected is all about relationships...meaningful relationships that matter. God says that YOU matter to Him. He's waiting and is always available. Are you?
