

Bucket Drum Beat Sheet #2

Simple Quarter Notes, Eighth Notes and Quarter Note Rests

The first line of musical notation is in 4/4 time, indicated by a treble clef, a key signature of one flat (B-flat), and a 4/4 time signature. It consists of two measures. The first measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then another quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space. The second measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then a quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space.

The second line of musical notation is in 4/4 time. It consists of two measures. The first measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then another quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space. The second measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then a quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space.

The third line of musical notation is in 4/4 time. It consists of two measures. The first measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then a quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space. The second measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then a quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space.

The fourth line of musical notation is in 4/4 time. It consists of two measures. The first measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then another quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space. The second measure contains a quarter note on the second line, followed by an eighth note on the first space, then a quarter note on the second line, and finally an eighth note on the first space.