A PRAYER FOR PRIESTS

Lord Jesus, you have chosen your priests from among us and sent them out to proclaim your word and act in your name. For so great a gift to your Church, we give you praise and thanksgiving. We ask you to fill them with the fire of your love, that their ministry may reveal your presence in the Church. Since they are earthen vessels, we pray that your power shines out through their weakness. In their afflictions let them never be crushed, in their doubts never despair, in temptation never be destroyed, and in persecution never abandoned. Inspire them through prayer to live each day the mystery of your dying and rising. In times of weakness send them your Spirit and help them to praise your Heavenly Father and pray for poor sinners. By your same Holy Spirit put your word on their lips and your love in their hearts, to bring good news to the poor and healing to the brokenhearted. And may the gift of Mary, your Mother, to the disciple whom you loved, be your gift to every priest. Grant that she who formed you in her human image, may form them in your divine image, by the power of your spirit, to the glory of God the Father, Amen.

Prayer for Safety In Hurricane Season

O God, Master of this passing world, hear the humble voices of your children.

The Sea of Galilee obeyed Your order and returned to its former quietude.
You are still the Master of land and sea.

We live in the shadow of a danger
over which we have no control:
the Gulf, like a provoked and angry giant,
can awake from its seeming lethargy, overstep
its conventional boundaries, invade our land, and spread chaos and disaster.

During this hurricane season we turn to You,
O loving Father.

Spare us from past tragedies whose memories are still so vivid and whose wounds seem to refuse to heal with passing of time.

O Virgin, Star of the Sea, Our beloved Mother, we ask you to plead with your Son on our behalf, so that spared from the calamities common to this area and animated with a true spirit of gratitude, we will walk in the footsteps of your Divine Son to reach the heavenly Jerusalem, where a stormless eternity awaits us. Amen.

of Lafayette (1956-1973), following Hurricane Audrey in 1957]

EL HIJO DEL HOMBRE NO VINO A SER SERVIDO, SINO A SERVIR

21 de octubre de 2018 • Vigésimo Noveno Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Las lecturas de hoy enfatizan que el poder y el privilegio son muy diferentes en el Reino de Dios de lo que son en el mundo. Isaías nos recuerda del sufrimiento, la aflicción, la impotencia del Siervo Sufriente que dio su vida por nuestros pecados. El salmo y la carta a los hebreos describen la soledad y el temor de esperar la venida del Reino de Dios en un mundo que valora el poder por encima del servicio y sacrificio. Las lecturas nos recuerdan confiar en Dios en un mundo que se burla del sacrificio de los débiles e indigentes. Marcos describe la ambición de los apóstoles, Santiago y Juan, quienes tuvieron la arrogancia de pedir posiciones de poder y privilegio. Los otros diez apóstoles se indignaron cuando escucharon esto debido a sus propias ambiciones de tener posiciones de poder, autoridad y gloria. La respuesta de Jesús contrasta en cómo el poder y la autoridad son usados en el mundo y cómo se usan en el Reino de Dios. Jesús sabe que el poder es servicio y sacrificio en el mundo de Dios.

SERVICIO Y SACRIFICIO

En las lecturas de hoy vemos el marcado contraste entre el mundo que refleja los valores humanos y un mundo que refleja los valores de Dios. ¿Quién en medio de nosotros no anhela tener más control, poder sobre nuestras vidas? ¿Quién en medio de nosotros no desea la comodidad del privilegio, la facilidad de la autoridad y el placer de ser servido? Pocos, si alguno, abandonaría el poder, el privilegio, el control por la oportunidad de servir. Desde luego, todos pensamos que nosotros usaríamos el poder de manera justa, sabia y generosamente; pero a menos que nuestro poder se enraíce en el servicio y sacrificio, siempre será mal utilizado. Jesús deja en claro que hasta que entendamos que el sacrificio y el servicio están en la raíz del poder real, somos indignos de ser investidos con autoridad.

Lecturas de hoy: Is 53:10-11; Sal 33 (32):4-5, 18-19, 22; Heb 4:14-16; Mc 10:35-45 [42-45]

OCTOBER 21, 2018 TWENTY-NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Through his suffering, my servant shall justify many.
— Isaiah 53:11b

A través de su sufrimiento, mi siervo justificará a muchos.
— Isaías 53: 11b

TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: “Too much information!” We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don’t want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it’s about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John’s outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been “too much information” for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem “too much” for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God. TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

As election campaigns move into high gear, sometimes the phrase “the Catholic vote” is heard. It’s an interesting concept, since Catholics started out in this country as a very fragile group: fewer than forty thousand of us at the time of the first census in 1790, and only about 2 percent of the population by 1830. It was a priestless church for all intents and purposes, lay-led clusters of Catholics waiting patiently for the occasional visit of a priest, sustained by gathering when they could on Sunday for devotional prayer like litanies and the rosary. They tried to hold on to their ancestral faith as best they could. Archbishop Jean-Louis Cheverus told one family in Maine to “every day say your prayers on your knees with affection, and every Sunday gather to hear the Gospel, to pray in common, and to quiz the children on the catechism.”

Inevitably, some became Protestant, but many more stayed Catholic from generation to generation, with very little encouragement or sacramental ministry from the clergy. Archbishop John Carroll, the first American bishop, tried to make Church law flexible: shortening the length of the fast before Communion, easing the Lenten fast, and even relaxing the rule of Sabbath rest at harvest time. Catholicism in England had been quietly sustained in this way for two centuries, and the first American Catholics carried on as had their ancestors, providing a fertile soil for the unprecedented success and phenomenal growth of the Church in our country.
