Call to Worship

The Alpha and Omega says, "Come."

Let everyone who hears come into the God's presence.

The tree of life says, "Come."

Let those who seeks eternal life come to the root and the descendent of David, our bright morning star.

The Spirit and the bride say, "Come."

Let everyone who is thirsty come to the heavenly banquet and drink from the wine of our salvation.

Come! Let us worship God together.

Opening Hymn: "To God Be the Glory" #56

Opening Prayer and Lord's Prayer (trespasses)

Unknowable God, on the most unsettling day, you drew Jesus to your side—promising his companions Spirit, power, mission, and purpose; calling his disciples to trust a future that they could not yet see. As we look to Jesus this day, give us the same hope of Spirit, power, mission, and purpose, and call to trust a future that we too are yet unable to see. Guide us into your depths, that we may glimpse the Spirit already at work in our lives—revealing your truth and empowering us to bear witness to the risen Christ. We lift our grateful hearts to you by saying the prayer he taught us to pray . . . Our Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen.

Invitation

Prayer of Confession

O Lord, we have not lived our lives as kingdom people. We place our crowns on hopelessness, fear, and selfishness. We are ruled by our schedules and our need for control. We make kings of the things we acquire and queens of our immediate desires. We forget that your kingdom draws near to us on earth, as it is in heaven. Forgive us, we pray. Come, Lord, and open in us the gates of your kingdom. Amen.

The Lord's Supper
