

RAYMOND TURNER

1912 - 1996

Raymond Turner, 84, lifelong resident of the Akron-Fairgrove Area, died late Saturday, Oct. 5 at Hills & Dales Nursing Care Facility in Cass City.

He was born in Akron on Sept. 22, 1912, to William and Myrtle (Gray) Turner, and lived his entire life in this area. He attended Akron Public School. He was united in marriage with Elsie Rohr in December, 1935, and she predeceased him in death in 1984.

Mr. Turner was a farmer for many years and had worked in the elevator grain mill on Bradleyville Road, Gilford. He enjoyed camping and watching and attending ball games.

Surviving are one son, Richard Turner of Haverhill, MA, one daughter, Mrs. Phyllis (David) O'Connor of Akron, one brother, Maynard Turner of Akron, five grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

Preceding Mr. Turner in death besides his wife was one brother, Leonard.

The funeral was conducted in Briggs-Trenerry Funeral Home, Akron, Wednesday morning, Oct. 9. Burial was in Brookside Cemetery, Fairgrove, with Pastor James Fader, Jr. of Akron Community Church of God officiating.

Those wishing to offer memorials are invited to consider Akron Community Church of God.