To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is to inform you of what an absolutely wonderful real estate agent Peggy Barnes is. I was relocating to the Aliso Viejo area, and was very picky as to the type of place that I wanted to buy. Peggy was extremely patient and friendly throughout all of the specifications that I required of my "perfect home." We went out and she obtained an idea of what I was looking for, and from then on she only took me to places that she knew I would want to see. Since she is so intuitive, we found a place much more quickly than I was expecting. Peggy was so incredibly helpful and knowledgeable about the entire process, and I felt completely comfortable and safe about what I was doing. I soon moved into the place that I had been dreaming of, and I still absolutely love it!

Peggy has become a trusted friend, and is the person that I send all of my friends and family members to when they talk about needing a real estate agent. I have known two other agents before, and I did not trust them, but I thought that that was how all real estate agents are. I cannot tell you enough how different and wonderful Peggy is. She is completely trustworthy and she will do everything in her power to make her clients happy. Please call me if you have any questions at all.

Sincerely,
