

SUNDAY MORNING MEDITATION

If Jesus is going to hear our words and respond, we must first hear His words and obey them—let them abide in us. “If you abide in me,” He said, “and my words abide in you, you shall ask what you will, and it shall be done unto you” (John 15:7). Such boundless privilege is found in this promise that we ought to learn what it means. What does it mean for His words to abide (make their home) in us? They are “spirit, and they are life” (John 6:63); they are “the words of eternal life” (6:68). They ought to be our soul’s one song, the rock on which our lives are built (Matt. 7:24-27). We can have what we will in prayer because we have already surrendered our will to His words, words which inform our hopes and desires, and form the deep-going substance of our lives.
All for Jesus, Richard
