

CALL FOR PRESENTERS

4th Annual Body-Mind Centering® Festival

upstate NY

December 2 & 3, 2017

Center for NIA & Yoga, Albany, NY

Guidelines: Presenters must hold a certification in Body-Mind Centering. Presenters are responsible for their own transportation to and from Albany, their own accommodations and material hand-outs to participants. In return, a modest honorarium will be paid to all presenters, professional photos from the Festival will be shared with presenters and presenters can attend the Festival Free of Charge. Presentations will be publicized and marketed locally by BMC upstate NY and internationally by the Body-Mind Centering Association.

Seeking Abstracts of Experiential Workshops: Workshop Title, Two to Four sentences describing a 90 minute workshop written in third person tense, a three sentence biography. Adherence to BMC related material is not a requirement.

DEADLINE: September 30, 2017. Email submissions to tsmith818@nycap.rr.com

Questions? Toni Smith, 518-629-0034, tsmith818@nycap.rr.com, www.tonismithdance.com

The mission of the BMC Festival upstate NY is to provide a platform for BMC Professionals to share their somatic inquiries with a diverse audience in upstate New York. The Festival is designed to bring awareness to the brilliance of BMC educators and to provide a venue for their on-going experiential research.

