29 members present

Minutes of previous meeting read and accepted.

Committee Reports:

Hospital Visitation - Vincent Lanzari reported that Dick Hughes is seriously ill in Staten Island University Hospital, N.Y.

Mike Shane reported he spoke with Paul La Spina's wife. Paul is back home and doing alright. Mrs La Spina said she had son serving with the Marines in Saudi Arabia. He asked Mike to write a letter to him which he did.

Mike spoke to Marty Rosenberg. His wife is in intensive care unit in the Hospital. Therefore Mike did not send her flowers at the hospital.

House - Willie Morelli said things were going OK. He also obtained a blue can for recycling. Sevens Registration - Willie Morelli reported that member James Mattimore died and that services were performed at Wake. Also, Honor Gerard performed grave site services. Requested meeting be closed in his memory.

Sal Albicocco said he was not notified about Post's services for Mattimore. Requested he be notified in the future.

Corporation - Richard Reichart reported that the Church that was renting hall had left. Another Church group will take its place basically on the same terms as the Church that left. The Minister of the new church has signed up a member of the Post.

Gene Remisz is rebuilding the bar and is redoling the bar stools. He also made a cork bulletin board for holding announcements.

A new flag will be put up tonight after the Post meeting.

St Patrick's Day Dance - Sal Fulcinelli reported that the St Patrick's day dance to be held March 15, 1991 starting at 7⁰⁰ PM. Tickets have been printed and price is $25 per person. Music by Carmine G. First Come First Served.

Old Business - Vincent Zengari said he is resigning as Hospital Visitation Chairman. He gave reasons for his resignation from this Chairmanship as well as joining up House Manager.

Richard Reichart gave his rebuttal.

New Business

Sal Albicocco made motion that fruit baskets be sent to the homes of Marty Rosenberg ~~and~~ ^{and} Dick Hughes.

Motion seconded and passed.

Good of the Legion -

Sal Albicocco said it was nice to see so many flags on display throughout Staten Island. He said we should make sure people are displaying the flags properly.

Meeting closed at 9³⁰ PM - with a moment of silence for James Maltese and a prayer for the recovery of Dick Hughes.

Respectfully submitted
