

Acting Out! with Professor Toby: Theatre, Movement, and Imagination, LLC.

is bringing the DRAMATIC ARTS to VRES for Kindergarten-2nd grade!

Have you wanted to try Acting, Drama and Movement for stage? Now is your chance! Each 10-week session culminates in a performance for parents and friends. New material and performances each session!

Professor Toby is looking for imaginative K-2 children who enjoy dramatic acting, movement and using their imaginations! Come join teacher, actor, singer, photographer, mother, and Virginia Run resident, as she offers her popular class "Acting Out! with Professor Toby. Professor Toby Chieffo-Reidway, Ph.D. is an active member of the Screen Actors Guild (SAG), and the American Federation of Television and Radio Artists (AFTRA). Over the past 15 years she has appeared in various television shows and feature films and has performed in over a dozen local musicals and plays.

K-2 students in Acting Out! with Professor Toby, will learn to use age appropriate theatre and movement techniques such as improvisation, visualization and pantomime, as well as theatre games in conjunction with classic works of art, music, and literature. Your child will be guided through theatrical adventures as they learn to use their own imaginations to create characters, scenes and memories.

TUESDAYS 4-5pm in the VRES Cafeteria (bring peanut-free snack)
