

Racine Concert Band

Mark Eichner, Music Director

93rd CONCERT SEASON 2016

"One of the truly outstanding community bands in America... the envy of many an American city." Dr. Leonard B. Smith

Welcome to the 2016 Concert Band Season!

We know summer is officially here when Sunday evenings feature our own Racine Concert Band playing at the Zoological Gardens.

Maybe more than anything else, The Racine Concert Band is quintessentially Racine, with programs that are both familiar and new, for concert goers both young and not so young. The setting is beautiful and band music goes deep into our shared American heritage

On behalf of the citizens of Racine, and our visitors, I have the deepest respect and gratitude for the musicians of the Racine Concert Band, and look forward to enjoying Sunday evenings with them for years to come.

Respectfully,

John Dickert
Mayor

Program cover artist Robbin Ulmer is from Tucson, Arizona, and is an Art major at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. She works primarily with acrylic, and depicts desert life in created landscapes.

Mark Eichner

Mark Eichner was named the Music Director and Conductor of the Racine Concert Band in 2002, becoming only the fifth conductor in the 92 year history of the band. He retired in 2014, after 32 years as Conductor of the UW-Parkside Wind Ensemble and trumpet instructor at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside. In 1990, he founded the UW-Parkside Community Band. He was selected for a University of Wisconsin Regents' Award for Teaching Excellence in 1993.

Recent accomplishments include a lecture-demonstration on the band music of Robert Ward at the conference of the College Band Directors National Association, conducted the Wisconsin Intercollegiate Band at the National Band Association-Wisconsin convention, served as guest conductor of the Racine District Band Festival, and performed with BrassWorks in a UW-Parkside "Rita Artist Series" concert, and was a trumpet soloist with the UW-Parkside Symphony.

He has performed in the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, the Florentine Opera, the Wisconsin Philharmonic Orchestra, Present Music, the Bel Canto Chorus and Orchestra, the Woodstock Mozart Festival, the Skylight Opera, the Milwaukee Bach Society, the Chicagoland Pops Orchestra, the Brass Band of Battle Creek, Music by the Lake, and the Racine, Kenosha, and Waukegan Symphony Orchestras. His quintet, BrassWorks, has performed a nationally broadcast performance at the Chicago Cultural Center, and has assisted the Canadian Brass in Wisconsin concerts.

Prior to his appointment at UW-Parkside, Professor Eichner taught at the University of Science and Arts of Oklahoma and in the Austin, Texas public schools. He earned his bachelor and master of music degrees at the University of Texas. He pursued advanced studies with Richard Metzger, Principal Trumpet of the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, and in conducting with Robert Reynolds of the University of Michigan.

For the twenty-sixth consecutive year, ACE HEATING & COOLING, INC., 1238 N. MAIN STREET, is sponsoring the great American Flag give-away at our concerts. The Racine Concert Band gratefully acknowledges David Linden and his associates for their generosity in adding this patriotic feature to our concerts.
