SETTING:

Cornely Drama Society presents the 1920s murder mystery,
"The Murder at Haversham Manor"

DIRECTOR'S NOTE:

What an incredible year we have had with Advanced Productions. A wonderful trip to the Shakespeare Competition, school tours, showcases, and to finish it all off, the piece de resistance, "The One Act Play that Goes Wrong". Advanced Productions as a class, asks our students to go above and beyond in their theatre studies and this year was no exception. Our students have had their hand in every aspect of this show. From casting to costumes, props to lighting, to the fantastic acting you are about to see, it has been a true pleasure to watch them grow and stretch over this year. This show truly is theirs.

While "The One Act Play that Goes Wrong" is full of the wacky hijinks of a "play within a play" farce, it sometimes hits a little too close if you have ever set foot on stage. Live theatre is so very human and full of the ups and downs, the wins and mistakes just like real life. The microcosm of the actual human experience it creates on stage is unlike any other. One of my favorite things about "The Play that Goes Wrong" in all of its variations, is the clear passion and drive that the cast of The Cornely Polytechnic Drama Society has in creating theatre. I hope our students will take with them some of that same love and passion and also the permission to make some mistakes along the way. I mean, maybe not dropping walls on people, but ya know...

We hope you enjoy the show.

Ashley Ramsey & Carly Haberman
