EVENTS

Oct. 3rd - School Spirit
Come dressed in your school uniform, colors, logo, or even as your school's mascot. Whatever your choice, let's see that school spirit and pride.

Oct. 10th - Fashion Disaster
Clubbers come dressed as mismatched as you can! (colors, patterns, materials)

Oct. 17th - Pajama Night
Yes, you heard right, wear your PJs and Slippers to AWANA tonight! (Everyone watch Ms. Kim get super excited for this one!!!)

Oct. 24th - Affliction Night
Come dressed with a broken bone, a sling, bandages, neck braces, have a cane or crutches, black that eye, fake bruises, etc. the list is endless. Whatever your ailments, the more you have tonight the better!

Oct. 31st - Trunk-n-Treat. Dress up for Trunk-n-Treat and bring your favorite bag, bucket, pillow case, etc., to collect candy in. The adults are opening their vehicle trunks with lots of candy just for you! Please don't cry if it rains, we'll just setup in doors for you!! So come and have some fun tonight cause the candy is waiting! REMEMBER: please, there is to be NO ghosts, goblins, witches, devils, or anything else that is evil, scary, bloody, etc., or inappropriately dressed costumes that night. This is a kid friendly/family atmosphere and God's house. Thank you.

Parents and Guardians, please remember:

- That while AWANA is going on, Bible Study & Prayer Services are still continuing in the main auditorium for you, so please come and join in.
- All children need to be picked up by 8:00 p.m.
- Each child has dues of $1.00 per week unless paid in full for the entire week. These dues aide with our parties, outings, prizes, supplies, awards, etc.
