702 attended last month's glass show.

The most since Katrina! Positive comments and good sales were heard from the dealers. The dealers also enjoyed the baskets, which made them feel special. $1000.40 was made at the Club Booth. Thanks and kudos, CCDGS members, for making this a successful Glass Show!

The club needs your help!

Lee Vinson is looking for someone willing to do a house tour for the fall.

Cheryl Walter is asking for volunteers to take over advertising for the Glass Show that are computer savvy.

March Meeting Highlights

The March 12, 2013 meeting was called to order by president, Carole Martinez. There were 32 members in attendance with 2 guests. Glenn Plauche reported a balance of $7103.12. The committees shared their reports. Charity collected $85. Betty Kehm presented the 1991 scrapbook. A fascinating program was presented on cookie jars. This was followed by the show 'n tell which was Best Buy from the Glass Show. The meeting ended with a Robert Frost poem about April.

Happy Birthday

Ellen Cook (1)
Carol Joachim (28)

Betty Kehm (11)
Sandra Nelson (12)

THE GALLERY

The door prize winner for the April meeting was Charlotte Baham, who won raffle tickets for the glass raffle prize.

The raffle winner for April was Vicki Hale, who won the 50/50 prize of $20. Charlotte Baham won a dealer's basket and Kay Caruso won a Mardi Gras bag.

Monthly Program

April's program was presented by Sandi Nelson, Alice Lowe Carol McCarty and Bonnie Theard. The ladies showed off their wonderful cookie jars!

Sandi's Popeye cookie jars are from the 1950s. The jar in the front was her cookie jar growing up, which her dad had to fix when it broke. (More pictures on page 4)

THE GALLERY, CONTINUED

The show 'n tell at the April meeting featured members' best buy from the Glass Show.

Glenn Plauche's (left) best buy, blue Viking long neck bird, was the best buy because it was a gift. Alice Lowe (right) shows off the smallest basket in her collection..

Sandra Carter shows off her new collection. This is not something she normally collects but the pieces jumped out at her!

Glimpses of the Meeting

The pretty refreshment table centerpiece and yummy things to eat.

Program Continued!!

Alice Lowe, left, brought in her grandfather's cookie jar. She also has the matching salt and pepper shaker, which was produced by Shawnee. This is the only thing in her kitchen not Pillsbury Doughboy. Carol McCarty, center, cookie jar is just like the one her grandmother had. Her mom has the grandmother's but isn't ready to part with it. Carol later found a smaller version she calls her "snack jar." Bonnie Theard, right, brought a pink Mayfair cookie jar, that she kept her dog treats in. Thanks ladies for a great program!
