

ARCHIE McILHARGIE

DATE OF BIRTH

March 7, 1894

DATE OF DEATH

March 10, 1965

PLACE AND TIME OF SERVICE

Saturday, March 13, 1965 2:00 P.M.

Kinde Presbyterian Church

CLERGYMEN OFFICIATING

Rev. Fred Schilling

Rev. Joseph Ryan

SOLOIST

Mr. Duane Johnson

BURIAL

Colfax Cemetery, Bad Axe

Archie McIlhargie
March 10

1894 - 1965

Archie McIlhargie, 71, a life-long resident of Hume township, died at his home on Tuesday evening, March 9, after a short illness.

He was born March 7, 1894 and was a World War I veteran.

Mr. McIlhargie and Vera Merrick were united in marriage in 1921.

Survivors are his wife, Vera; one son, Lt. Colonel William McIlhargie, Westover Air Force Base, Massachusetts; three grandchildren; three sisters, Miss Edna McIlhargie, Mrs. Thomas Toolin and Mrs. Christine Lyon, all of Detroit.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Kinde Presbyterian church.

The Rev. Fred Schilling, and Rev. Joseph Ryan of Bad Axe Presbyterian church, officiated.

Burial was in Colfax cemetery, Bad Axe.