

California Central Valley Coalition for Compassionate Care

CCVCCC

About

The Central Valley Coalition is a group of volunteer individuals and local organizations concerned with end-of-life care issues.

Mission

To increase access to quality end-of-life care and services by eliminating barriers, increasing professional education, enhancing and coordinating services, and reaching out to the community.

Objectives

- Educate and support people who are seriously ill, their families and their caregivers
- Educate and support physicians and other healthcare providers in compassionate care of seriously ill people
- Identify the needs of California Central Valley residents that exist due to gaps and/or duplication of services as they relate to end-of-life care
- Promote viability for the Coalition as an organization

Organizations with members actively involved in the Coalition include:

Optimal Hospice, AseraCare Hospice, Hinds Hospice, Community Regional Medical Center, Central California Veterans Administration Health Care System, UCSF-Fresno, Kaiser Permanente, Kaweah Delta Health Care District, Clovis Community Hospital and more...
