MEMBERSHIP

We held another successful Meet & Greet on December 7, 2018 and thank Gayle Winkler for hosting this event. We welcome the new members that joined that day: Lynn Alembik, Barbara Applebaum and Susan Canarick and welcome back former members Carole Blum & Leslie Matray. We hope you'll find your membership rewarding and fulfilling.

I have received several more names of women interested in joining NCJW. Therefore, we would like to have another M&G in late January or early February, 2019. Please send names and email addresses of prospective members to me at judyfinder@yahoo.com. Please inform these women that a M&G is where we will go into detail about our programs and where they will have an opportunity to ask questions to discover which activities fit their interests and time constraints. Also, please let me know if you'd be willing to host the M&G in your home.

Remember, it's through growth that we remain a vital and meaningful organization.

Florida NCJW Legislative Days

This year's Legislative Days will be March 12-13, 2019

You are invited to go to Tallahassee to meet with your State legislators to discuss your concerns and advocate for NCJW policies, together with a delegation from other Florida sections. Hotel and travel costs will be partially reimbursed by SE-Atlantic Section. Interested? Contact Lillian Kaminer, VP Advocacy, lekaminer@aol.com or 561-482-9592.

Washington Institute 2019

Join us in Washington on April 7-9, 2019

Registration is now open for the 2019 Washington Institute. The Institute starts with speakers, panels, and workshops on issues, advocacy skills, leadership, and policy, preparing you for a day of visits to your members of Congress. Appointments with Senators and Representatives will be scheduled. To register, go to www.NCJW.org and follow the Washington Institute link. Cost is $675 (slight discount before 1/25), plus hotel (Washington Marriott) and travel to Washington, DC. SE-Atlantic Section will reimburse a portion of the cost, to be determined according to the number of members who attend. Questions? Contact Lillian Kaminer, VP Advocacy, lekaminer@aol.com. All who have attended in other years have found this to be an unforgettable experience.

Community Service

Thanks to our wonderful chairperson Cynthia Shulman, we were at 6 facilities for Chanukah: Shelly Block led us at Barrington Terrace, our newest addition. Phoenix welcomed Judy Giller and our crew. Our wonderful Judy Finder led at Boynton Health. Master (Mistress?) Mitzvah Mama, Arlene Davidson reprised her leading at Grand Villa. Sonata's group was led by Shelly Gross and I "carried on" at Brookdale Boynton. A busy season of bringing ruach and joy!!! Thank you to all our volunteers for joining us. A special thank you to Marilyn Katz, Eva Korentayer, and the team of Susan and Michael Isaacson (our newest Mitzvah Papa) who pulled double duty and helped at two facilities. We brought our spirit of caring and sharing to 170 residents this Chanukah alone. If you are interested in participating in the future, Pesach, please contact Cynthia or me. Consider bringing spouses, children, grandchildren.

Another extraordinary program, Kid's Closet is expanding from our beginnings of one school and now bringing necessary emergency clothing to FOUR under the leadership of Marsha Lotstein. If you are interested in learning how you can help, please let her (or me) know. There is an organizational meeting at her home scheduled for January 16th at 10 A.M.

The New Year brings us Preschool Eye Screening with our chairperson Renee Marcus organizing locations, times and volunteers. Please check the January Bulletin for specifics.

Those are three of the projects sponsored by NCJW. We partner with the Palm Beach County Literacy Coalition to provide volunteers for their Building Better Readers Program. I have been volunteering for the last 3 years and find it joyful and rewarding. We will soon have more information for you about our partnership with JFS (Jewish Family Services) WTOF (Working Towards Our Future) program to facilitate career and employment services to high school students by helping them prepare resumes and interview skills.

With NCJW in your life there is never a lack of something constructive and worthwhile to do.

KUDOS For Our Work on Human Trafficking

Place of Hope is honoring Co-President Arlene Davidson and NCJW SE Atlantic Section for our indefatigable work to help prevent human trafficking. Arlene Davidson and Susan Kanoff will receive awards at their luncheon on January 22nd. We hope many of you will join us and celebrate the hard work and good results. The luncheon is at Saint Lucy Catholic Church, 3510 S. Ocean Blvd, Highland Beach, FL 33487. All the details are at the registration link: <https://www.placeofhoperinker.org/event/htlunch2019/> . Note that the luncheon is $55 until Dec 14 and $75 as of Dec 15th.

A Place of Hope Outreach

Hope Campaign (chapstick program) outreaches.

Our upcoming Boca outreach dates are January 26rd, February 23rd, March 16th, April 13th at 1:15 PM at Starbucks (corner of Yamato and Congress in Boca). Training is at 10:00 am January 23rd, February 20th, March 14th and April 11th at Place of Hope at 10 am.

We've identified additional hotels and enhanced our discussions with the hotel/motel clerks. Even in the miserable weather of our last outreach, a sturdy group of volunteers filled two cars.

Any questions as to how to get involved, please contact me.

Jewish Leader of Tomorrow Scholarships

Are you interested in making a difference in the future of a high school senior Jewish girl in our community?

Have you thought about volunteering for a committee, but only want to give it a try without a big commitment?

Please join the NCJW Scholarship Committee. We grant an annual scholarship to a deserving senior who presents an application to our committee. We meet on a Sunday morning in March to review the essays and select the recipients. The essays are compelling and we are often moved by the girls' stories.

If you would like to join us, please contact Ellen Hahn at ellenberk@hotmail.com and we would be happy to have you join us.
