My 2 Sons: John|Sean Memorial Scholarship 2019

POSTMARK DATE: April 1, 2019

$1,000 scholarships will be awarded to eligible students planning to attend a 4-year college/university or a 2 year community college. Scholarships will be distributed in two installments of $500.

Giving God The Glory Ministries (GGG MINISTRIES) proudly announces the availability of scholarships for high school seniors planning to attend a 2 year community college or a 4 year college/university. This scholarship is open to qualified minority students.

In October of 1989, Sean Cater, the oldest son of Rev. Gloria J. Randolph, was murdered at age 21. As a result of this tragedy, she founded Giving God The Glory Ministries in 1997. Her youngest son, John Cater Jr., an award winning journalist, died in January of 2010 at age 32. This was 6 months after he won the prestigious Emmy Award for Excellence in Reporting.

The “My 2 Sons: John/Sean Memorial Scholarship” honors the legacies of the late John and Sean Cater.

The thoughts and convictions of John and Sean Cater in their own words:

“I hope to inspire young Black males watching me, giving them the opportunity to see someone who looks like their brother, friend, cousin or even their next door neighbor. And when faced with the challenges of daily living, listen, pick and choose their fights, turn adversity into advantage and stay focused.”

John L. Cater Jr. – September 12, 2004

“I, Sean A. Cater, vow that I will always give back my services to the best of my ability in order to help support and strengthen the youth of today’s society, especially the Black youth. Most importantly, I will teach my kids to give back to society so that they will feel the inner joy it brings to help a distressed individual.”

Sean A. Cater – March 20, 1989
