A Note from Rick: More of the same in the markets this week. Slaughter markets continue to show slight improvement and bull calves the opposite. The biggest improvement by far this week was the weather. What a beautiful week for everyone to get things caught up and ready for old man winter- cause he's coming around the corner pretty soon. We've been blessed with a decent harvest season and a plentiful harvest for the most part. We enjoyed spending some down time with friends and family over the Thanksgiving weekend. My son and I got to spend some time in the woods, didn't see much but really enjoyed the peace and quiet. My mother and mother-in-law both prepared amazing meals and I ate too much in both places! By Sunday, I was getting restless and ready to get back to work at TLA! Hope to see you here soon.
