Hill Country Festivals offers first Ren Fest of the year, in Kerrville, TX; Jan 24, 25, 26, and Feb 1, 2, 2020, as the Kerrville Renaissance Festival returns for the fourth year to the River Star Arts and Events Park and Hill Country Youth Event Center in Kerrville, Texas. Hours are 10 a.m.–5 p.m. each day.

This relatively new event is hosted by Hill Country Festivals and has been expanded to five days over two consecutive weekends. Guests will find family-friendly entertainment, music, magic, food, and crafts.

Entertainment is offered on seven stages. Music will be provided by Lady Prudence, Coal Black Rose, The Dublin Harpers, The Toobadours, Klaus Weiland, and David Hazlett, Bagpiper.

Entertainment scheduled includes Last Chance Forever Birds of Prey Conservancy demonstrations, The Great Rondini Escape Artist, Marty the Juggler, Magical Mystical Michael, Belly Dance Troupes, and more.

The Vinland South Shield Wolves will conduct demonstrations. There will be a Glassblowing Demo, a Mythical Menagerie of photo ops, games, and more.

Shoppers can browse through a plethora vendor booths offering unique handmade crafts, including yard art, henna body art, face painting, handmade hair garlands, hair braiding, works in wood, leather garments and accessories.

Food choices on the grounds include Funnel Cake, Cinnamon Roasted Nuts, Chocolate covered Cheese Cake, Fresh Donuts, Turkey Legs, Kettle Corn, Jerky, Deep Fried Carmel Apple, Deep Fried Candy Bars, Deep Fried Oreos, and Deep Fried Pecan Pie, Wood Fired Pizza, and Deep Fried Ravioli, washed down with beer.

Guests are encouraged to embrace the spirit of the festival by showing up in Renaissance era clothing and attitude. The second weekend will offer an added “Time Travelers” theme.

Prices are $14.95 for adults and $9.95 for children 5-12; Children 4 and under are free. Parking is free. Advance Discount tickets are available on KerrvilleRenFest.com, but will not be available once the Festival opens.
