March 6, 2016
Fourth Sunday of Lent

Luke 15:1-3, 11-32

“The younger son said to his father,
‘Father give me the share of your estate that should come to me.’”

A Jewish friend claims that we can know the parable we know as The Prodigal Son is a story because no Jewish father in the time of Jesus would divide his property before he died and give half to his spendthrift youngest son. My Jewish friend an important pointy - Jesus is telling a story. Jesus frequently used parables to teach a truth. A parable is a story. This story teaches us the truth that love is unconditional. It is tempting to get caught up in the details about the ingratitude and selfishness of the youngest son thought he could buy pleasure and friends; the love of a father for a child who has rejected him and all his values; and a son who is too self absorbed and angry to share his father's joy at the return of his younger brother. Jesus told the story to teach the Pharisees and scribes, and us, that we all have a little bit of the father and his sons in all of us. We sometimes love unconditionally; we are sometimes ungrateful and selfish; we are sometimes too angry to share others' joys. How do we want to be remembered?
