

2017 HISPANIC YOUTH SYMPOSIUM

CODE OF CONDUCT

** Entire form must be completed in full, signed and returned no later than June 16th, 2017.

PARENTS AND STUDENTS PLEASE READ THIS FORM PRIOR TO ATTENDING THE HISPANIC YOUTH SYMPOSIUM AT THE COLLEGE OF IDAHO CAMPUS

HYS Rules

At all times students will show respect for and follow the directions of chaperones. Students will also show respect to other students, speakers, and event sponsors (including appropriate use of cell phones and music players). No smoking, alcohol or drugs. No kissing or inappropriate touching. No profanity or insulting language. No harassing behavior. No weapons or violent behavior. Failure to obey rules and expectations set by chaperones will result in the student being sent home immediately, and his/her parents and school notified. Violation to the Code of Conduct could potentially lead to expulsion from the program.

STUDENTS MUST:

- Understand that College/HYS rules supersede rules from home.
- Respectfully follow directions of HYS staff, mentors, tour guides, and fellow students.
- Be on time for each activity.
- Never wear gang type, revealing, or questionable clothing.
- Never use gang hand signs, use inappropriate, intimidating, harassing and/or profane language.
- Never possess illegal substances. This includes: tobacco, alcohol, drugs, and prescriptions without student names on them.
- Never share personal prescriptions or over-the-counter medications with other students.
- Never bring weapons or display violent behavior.
- Understand they will not be able to leave with friends, family, or relatives while on field trip.
- Avoid public or private displays of affection. This includes: kissing, inappropriate touching, sitting on each other's lap, hanging on each other, and etc.
- Understand there will be negative consequences, determined by mentors and HYS staff, when rules are not followed.
- Understand parents will be called in situations involving tobacco, drugs, weapons, and inappropriate behavior.
- Understand parents may have to pick students up early in the event of an illness, emergency, rules violation, or any incident involving the police.

OVERNIGHT GUIDELINES:

- Students are not allowed in the room of anyone of the opposite sex for any reason.
- Students need to be in their room at the requested time.
- Plan on turning televisions, lights and cell phones off or on silent at the designated time.
- Understand that quiet hours set by the HYS staff and the residence hall will be enforced.
- No energy drinks past 6pm.
- Please do not plan on using the residence hall phones; staff cell phones are available to students in cases of emergency.

PARENTS PLEASE UNDERSTAND:

The College of Idaho/HYS monitoring of students activities and behavior for this event:

1. Starts when they board* the bus/van at the beginning of the trip and
2. Ends when they depart the bus/van at the end of the trip.

The University/HYS staff WILL NOT be monitoring who students come to the university or bus stop with or leaves the university or the bus stop with. The bus stop and time for arrival/departure will be provided two weeks prior to the event.

*For students providing self transportation: the same rules apply once they check in and end at check-out.

2017 HISPANIC YOUTH SYMPOSIUM

CODE OF CONDUCT

Thank you for your attention to The College of Idaho/Hispanic Youth Symposium Code of Conduct. Please keep this form for your records and sign the enclosed event forms. Signature on the attached forms means both student and parent have read and understand The College of Idaho/Hispanic Youth Symposium Code of Conduct.

_____
Student's Signature

_____
Date

_____
Parent/Guardian Signature

_____
Date