The province is now in the Green level. This allows us to remove some restrictions in our churches.

1. Parishioners are no longer required to call and register for Mass. Sanitizer bottles may be maintained at various locations allowing people to sanitize their hands if they wish.
2. Masks are no longer required, but respect and acceptance must be shown to those who choose to wear them for health or safety reasons.
3. Physical distancing is not required, thus, the church can be filled.
4. Disinfection of pews and shared equipment is no longer required.
5. Liturgical materials. "Living with Christ", songbooks, or other materials may be used.
6. Singing may be resumed as before Covid-19 without restriction.
7. Parish gatherings and catechetical groups may now be held without restriction as to number and distance.
8. Holy water can be placed in the holy water fonts at entrances to the churches.

The following restrictions are to be maintained: Holy Communion: For the time being, as a matter of prudence, we will refrain from distributing communion in the cup or receiving on the tongue. The sign of peace will be exchanged by bowing or making other gestures without contact.

We will have to continue to be careful as Covid-19 is always with us. We are encouraged to practice health measures such as handwashing, coughing in your elbow, or staying home when sick and wearing a mask if you so choose. The virus is still with us and we should all expect to see cases as normal travel returns.

Through the SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM on July 31st
The following children were welcomed into our Christian Family at St. Augustine's Church

Alaric Jaden Francis, son of Edison and Mary Ann
Olson York Wadden, son of David and Tonya

Bless these children. May the example of their parents, Godparents and all of us lead them to a greater love of God

BENEDICT XVI
ANGELUS

Sunday, 12 August 2012

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The Reading of the sixth chapter of John's Gospel in the Liturgy of these Sundays has led us to reflect on the multiplication of the loaves, with which the Lord satisfied the hunger of a crowd of five thousand, and on the invitation Jesus addresses to all those whom he had fed to busy themselves seeking a food that endures to eternal life. Jesus wants to help them understand the profound meaning of the miracle he had worked: in miraculously satisfying their physical hunger; he prepares them to receive the news that he is the Bread which has come down from heaven (cf. Jn 6:41), which will satisfy hunger forever. The Jewish people too, during their long journey through the desert, experienced bread which came down from heaven, manna, which kept them alive until they reached the Promised Land. Jesus now speaks of himself as the true Bread come down from heaven, which is capable of keeping people alive not for a moment or on a stretch of a journey but forever. He is the food that gives eternal life, because he is the Only-Begotten Son of God who is in the Father's heart, who came to give man life in fullness, to introduce man into the very life of God.

In Jewish thought it was clear that the true bread of heaven, which nourished Israel, was the Law, the word of God. The People of Israel clearly recognized that the Torah, which was Moses' fundamental and lasting gift, was the basic element that distinguished them from other peoples and consisted in their knowledge of God's will, thus the right way of life. Now Jesus, in manifesting himself as the bread of heaven, witnesses that he himself is the Word of God in Person, the Incarnate Word, through whom man can make the will of God his food (cf. Jn 4:34), which guides and sustains his existence.

Therefore to doubt in the divinity of Jesus, as do the Jews in today's Gospel passage, means setting oneself against God's work. Indeed, they say: he is the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know! (cf. Jn 6:42). They do not go beyond his earthly origins, and for this reason refuse to accept him as the Word of God made flesh. St Augustine, in his Commentary on John's Gospel explains it in the following way: "These Jews were far from the bread of heaven, and knew not how to hunger after it. They had the jaws of their heart languid... This bread, indeed, requires the hunger of the inner man" (26, 1).

And we must ask ourselves if we really feel this hunger, the hunger for the Word of God, the hunger to know life's true meaning. Only those who are drawn by God the Father, who listen to him and let themselves be instructed by him can believe in Jesus, meet him and nourish themselves with him and thereby find true life, the road of life, justice, truth and love. St Augustine adds: "the Lord.... said that he himself was the Bread that came down from heaven, exhorting us to believe in him. For to believe in him is to eat the living bread. He that believes eats; he is sated invisibly, because invisibly he is born again" to a deeper and truer life. He is reborn from within, from his intimate self he is made new (ibid.).

Invoking Mary Most Holy, let us ask her to guide us to the encounter with Jesus so that our friendship with him may be more and more intense; let us ask her to usher us into full communion of love with her Son, the living Bread come down from heaven, so as to be renewed by him in the depths of our being.

Prayers of the Faithful 19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

For the church, that she may receive from the Holy Spirit the grace and strength to reform herself in the light of the Gospel.

We pray.

For all nations who are blessed with an abundance, and for a willingness to share that abundance with all those in need.

We pray.

For all who are suffering from anxiety, depression, and loneliness.

We pray.

For a spirit of patience, love, and mercy toward one another. For the grace to forgive ourselves and others.

We pray.

For the sick, and for those who have died,

We pray.

"Best wishes, prayers, support and safe travels are extended to Frank Quinn from all of us at Queen of All Saints parish unit, as he soon travels to continue his studies for the priesthood at St. Peter's Seminary in London, Ontario.

Frank has been active in lay ministry at St Augustine's and in our diocese since he arrived at St Augustine's in 2015, serving on the Baptism, RCIA, Liturgy and Diocesan Adult Faith Commission teams, in addition to being a member of the Ray of Hope Board, a communion minister, Lector and Lay Presider at Celebrations of the Word including Evening Prayer.

May God continue to bless you on your journey, Frank!"

R.C.I.A. stands for "Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults."

It does require a commitment of time but we think you will find the process much easier than you might expect. In addition, we have found that everyone who becomes involved, young or old, highly religious or moderately so, finds the process to be a wonderful experience. An invitation is extended to those who are not baptized, those baptized in the Catholic Church but have not received the sacraments of Eucharist and / or Confirmation, those baptized in another Christian tradition who are interested in learning more about the Catholic Church. For information please contact the parish office at 857-4223.

OUR LADY OF MERCY

SUNDAY MASS AT OUR LADY OF MERCY CHURCH

Msgr. Coyle will join us this summer for mass on Sunday mornings at 9:00 am until August 22nd. This is in addition to Saturday evenings at 7:00pm

Thank You! The yard & bake sale complete with 50/50 draw was a great success. Antonia Glavas, Odette Babineau and I are so indebted to the 20 plus volunteers who gave up their Saturday for our roof fund raising effort. Thank you for your selfless dedication to Our Lady of Mercy. Special thank you to those who donated items, goods and help make the event such a great accomplishment. Finally, to those who were so generous with cash/cheque donations, your benevolence 'kick started' a very successful day!

"Yard Sale"- 2nd edition - For the remaining items not sold last Saturday (and with new donations coming this week) there will be a 'Deja vu' phase 2-yard sale held on Saturday, August 7th. Full financial report will be provided as soon as possible. Mike Sullivan -chair, parish council

Thank you for your support of "Birthingright Moncton" c/o Mrs. Shiela Gorman. Our Lady of Mercy recently made our 4th donation of 'pocket change' placed in the 'baby bottle' as you enter the church.
