

ADVISORY ON THE UNAUTHORIZED AND UNLICENSED
RECRUITMENT OF HARVARD IMMIGRATION

The Philippine Consulate General (PCG) in Vancouver advises the general public about the unauthorized and unlicensed recruitment of Filipino workers being conducted by Harvard Immigration.

Based on the verification made by the Philippine Overseas Labor Office (POLO) in Vancouver, it was determined that Harvard Immigration is not duly authorized/licensed to recruit Filipino workers for employment in Canada. Filipinos seeking employment in Canada are advised to deal only with legitimate recruitment/employment agencies that are duly registered and accredited with the Philippine Overseas Employment Administration (POEA).

A license to engage in immigration consultancy activities is not an authority to undertake recruitment of Temporary Foreign Workers (TFW). It is also prohibited even for a licensed recruitment agency to charge a worker any recruitment fee to facilitate deployment to Canada.
