Diner • Restaurant
and Family Cafe

New Jersey Diners are among the most popular dining establishments in the world.

Over 98% of those who have eaten out in the past year have eaten at a diner.

New Jersey Diners have been immortalized in films and on television, and have earned their rightful place in the state's folklore. Most diners are still owned and operated by the second and third generation of the family that first opened them. And, of course, all the food is still made fresh from scratch for you and your family.

Even the baking is done right on the premises.
