The 5th Week of School!

Hello everyone!

I want to say THANK YOU so much for discussing the importance of being a responsible student with you children. I have seen a big improvement in the number of students who are completing all of their homework each week! I knew they could do it! This week students will continue to work on adding and subtracting within 20 with word problems and begin discussing money in math. In ELA, students will continue to look at non-fiction text features and begin discussing fiction. My homeroom will begin with Mrs. Torres this week and Mrs. Torres homeroom will begin with me this week. We have 8 social studies based vocabulary words. I will try not to give students more than 8 words each week. Please sign and return progress reports if you have not already done so. We will continue our Science unit on the English side this week. Matter has already been discussed on the Spanish side. We also will continue our discussion on components of the government in S.S. I am looking forward to another great week!

The 4th Week of School!

Hello students and parents!

I hope that you enjoyed the holiday weekend! Yes, we still have homework this week and it is still due on Friday, however, I will give students some time in class to work on their homework assignments. This week students will continue to work on adding and subtracting within 20 with and without word problems in math and continue place value concepts. In ELA, students will look continue to look at non-fiction text clues and discuss their importance. My homeroom will begin with me this week and

Mrs. Torres homeroom will begin with her this week. We will only have 5 science based vocabulary words. I will try not to give students more than 8 words each week. Progress report go home on Wednesday. The first 4 weeks of school, we primarily focused on S.S. so there will not be a Science grade. We begin our Science unit on the English side this week. Matter has already been discussed on the Spanish side. We also will continue our discussion on components of the government in S.S. I am looking forward to another great week!

The 3rd Week of School!

Hello students and parents!

I am at a mandatory training program today and will return tomorrow. All messages received today will be returned by Tuesday AM. *Remember, I can no longer see any messages received after 8am so please plan accordingly regarding your questions.* Every morning before we begin our lessons, students have an opportunity to ask homework or general questions. Please direct your students to pose their questions during this time and help them towards taking responsibility for their own education. This week students will work on adding and subtracting within 20 using word problems in math and continue place value concepts. In ELA, students will look at non-fiction text clues and discuss their importance. My homeroom will begin with Mrs. Torres this week and Mrs. Torres homeroom will begin with me. The vocabulary words this week are different. Students can ask for a Social Studies book to define most of the words if they don't want to use a standard dictionary. Remember this Wed is a half day (dismissal at 12:15). I am looking forward to another great week!

The 2st Week of School!

PLEASE READ THIS ENTIRE LETTER. STUDENTS HOMEWORK ON THE LEFT NEEDS TO BE COMPLETED AND TURNED IN ON FRIDAY AM. THANK YOU!!!

The third week of school was full of fun! Students learned about place value and enjoyed the "Place Value Feud" game which takes the same form as "Family Feud". This week they will continue to learn about place value, looking at the hundreds, tens and ones place in different numbers. My homeroom will begin with me this week this week and

Mrs. Torres homeroom will begin with her. The vocabulary words are the same this week. Students need to write the definitions using a standard or electronic dictionary and bring them to class on Friday to take the quiz. Please choose the 1st definition for each word. The goal of the homework is to expose students to doing research, locating the meaning to words they don't know, and learning how to use a dictionary. This week we will talk about the government in S.S and nonfiction text features in ELA. I am looking forward to another great week!

arent Reminder/Notes

The 2nd Week of School!

PLEASE READ THIS ENTIRE LETTER AND SEE STUDENTS HOMEWORK ON THE LEFT. THANK YOU!!!

The second week of school was full of excitement! Students learned a great deal about the different forms numbers come in (expanded, standard, and written form). This week they will learn specifically about place value and look at the hundreds, tens and ones place in different numbers. My homeroom will begin in Mrs. Torres class this week and her homeroom will begin in my class. Students will go directly to the aforementioned room as soon as they arrive to school after they have had breakfast. PLEASE JOIN OUR CLASS DOJO if you have not already done so! This week we will work on HTO in math, talk about rules and laws in S.S., continue discussing story events and character challenges in ELA and gather DRA data to determine students current reading levels. I am looking forward to another great week!
