

An Invitation to Support
The Healing Power of Music Benefit Concert
Celebrating the Maryland State Boychoir's
Saturday November 23, 2019

The Maryland State Boychoir is proud to announce a benefit concert, The Healing Power of Music, to take place on Saturday November 23, 2019. Proceeds from this event will support the programs of the Maryland State Boychoir and Shepherd's Clinic, which provides comprehensive health care to the uninsured in Baltimore.

The Healing Power of Music benefit concert will be held at The Maryland State Boychoir Center for the Arts at 3400 Norman Avenue in Baltimore's Mayfield neighborhood. The event begins at 3:00 pm with a reception and silent auction with the concert to follow at 4:00 pm.

Founded in 1987, the Maryland State Boychoir offers boys and young men from throughout Maryland a foundation in music to develop the mind, shape the character, and fill the spirit. The choir includes over 150 young men and boys from a broad cross section of socioeconomic, ethnic, and religious backgrounds.

The Shepherd's Clinic for the Uninsured, located in Baltimore City was founded in 1991 with a primary goal to provide quality, comprehensive health care and wellness services to Baltimore City's uninsured. Shepherd's Clinic (shepherdsclinic.org) relies on volunteer doctors, nurses and staff, as well as, grants and private donations.

The Healing Power of Music Chorus, co-founded by Kathy J. Helzlsouer, M.D., M.H.S. and Stephen Holmes brings the experience of singing choral music to the community. Research has shown the benefits of music in maintaining health and in the healing process. The chorus provides the opportunity for all to enjoy the benefits of singing in community.

The Maryland State Boychoir invites you to consider becoming a sponsor for this event.
