

Board Member Authority

Because all powers of the Board lie in its actions as a body, individual Board members exercise their authority over NWBOCES affairs only as they vote to take action at a legal meeting of the Board.

An individual Board member, including the chairman, shall have power only when the Board, by vote, has delegated authority to him or her.