

STADIUM AND FOOTBALL GAME ETIQUETTE FOR THE WEST MESQUITE BURNT ORANGE BAND

- No eating while in uniform. After halftime you will be given a snack which you can eat but otherwise, it is forbidden.
- You may not go to the concession stand or bring food from home to eat at the game
- No back packs are allowed in the stands.
- You may have your cell phone on you, but it is not to be used during the game. Think of a football game as a band class.
- No individual or small group playing of instruments. We will play as a group.
- No more than three boys and three girls are allowed to use the restroom at one time during the game. You will be escorted by an adult
- Watch closely while the other band performs at halftime. Applaud when appropriate and be quiet. They work just as hard as you do. Respect and support their efforts.
- Profanity will not be tolerated. Even if there are no adults around there are always people listening.
- No one is allowed in the stands with the burnt orange band except for current band students, directors and members of the band parent organization.
- You may not go to your parents or anyone else to get anything during the game.
- You may stand and cheer for your team.
- You are not to leave your section in the stands during a game.
