

Veda Moline, Benson, AZ

360-827-5040

Veda Moved to Benson after she retired in September 2018 from Western Washington State. He husband and her have a Dodge ProMaster van that they have converted to an RV. She has taken many pictures in her travels. This has given her many different subjects to paint.

Veda started painting July 2019. This was from the encouragement of her sister. Veda has never taken any class past high school. She had never tried painting so decided to purchase a kit of paints and one of brushes. She started to paint a few paintings and was amazed that people liked them.

Veda has a unique style. She is mainly self-taught. She loves to challenge herself. She joined the San Pedro River Arts Council August 2019.

