

Dolores Dunmore Greene

Dolores is a Washington, DC native. She earned DS and MA degrees in Russian and Russian Area studies from Georgetown University, attended Leningrad State University, Leningrad, USSR (now St. Petersburg, Russia), and is a graduate of the National War College, Washington, DC. Dolores is a retired intelligence Officer and Independent Consultant on intelligence and National Security and Defense Intelligence. She is the Agency's first African American Senior Executive Service member, where she served as Head of Delegation and US Representative to several international conferences and intelligence exchanges. Dolores is the former Co-Chair, Director of National Intelligence's Diversity Senior Advisory Panel; recipient of the Presidential Rank of Meritorious Executive, two-time recipient of the NAACP Roy Wilkins Renowned Service Award. Dolores was introduced to the Oracle Set Book Club by Alice Hayes. She is a member of the Oracle Set Foundation Board of Directors and chairs the Claudette Franklin Ford Memorial Scholarship Committee. Her immediate family members include sister, Sharon Dunmore, daughter and son-in-law, Lauren and Derek Beasley, and grandson, Xaiden Beasley. Her favorite Oracle Set activities are the monthly book discussion and the scholarship committee that allows her to meet some of Washington's outstanding student writers.