* Required Information

† A no answer will not necessarily disqualify you from consideration.

‡ Criminal History

Please note that any one answer will not necessarily disqualify you from consideration. A conviction will not necessarily bar you from employment but will only be considered in relation to specific job requirements. Each conviction will be judged on its own merits with respect to time, circumstances and seriousness.

Candidates who reside or are applying for a position in the following states or municipalities should review the instructions before answering the Criminal History inquiry.

Instructions for Criminal History Inquiry

California, Connecticut, District of Columbia, Georgia, Hawaii, Massachusetts, Nevada, New York, Philadelphia, and Washington: Have you ever been convicted of or plead guilty to a crime? Not including any records that may be sealed or expunged. If Yes, Please explain.

Hawaii, Massachusetts, and Philadelphia: Do not answer this question at this time.

District of Columbia and Washington: Do not disclose any convictions that are 10 years old or greater.

California: Exclude convictions for marijuana-related offenses for personnel use more than two years old; convictions that have been sealed, expunged or legally eradicated, and misdemeanor convictions for which probation was completed and the case was dismissed.

Connecticut: You are not required to disclose the existence of any arrest, criminal charge or conviction, the records of which have been erased. Conn. Gen. Stat. Sections 46b-146, 54-76o or 54-142a. Criminal records subject to erasure pursuant to Conn. Gen. Stat. Sections 46b-146, 54-76o or 54-142a are records related to (a) determinations of "delinquency" or that, as a child, you were a member of a family with service needs, (b) a ruling you are a "youthful offender", (c) a finding you are not guilty for a criminal charge, or (d) a conviction for which you have received an "absolute pardon". Any person whose criminal records have been erased pursuant to Conn. Gen. Stat. Sections 46b-146, 54-76o or 54-142a shall be deemed to never have been arrested within the meaning of the general statutes with respect to the proceedings so erased and may so swear under oath.

Georgia: Do not disclose any information that was discharged under Georgia's First Offender Act

Nevada: Do not disclose the discharge and dismissal of certain first time drug offenses, after the accused has completed probation and any required treatment or educational programs, does not constitute a conviction for purposes of employment.

New York: Do not include any information with respect to any youthful offender conviction.

Utah: Only identify felony convictions.

If hired, federal law requires that you furnish documentation showing your identity and that you are legally authorized to work in the United States.
