

INDEX OF KEY PEOPLE

This is an index of all the people for whom there is a specific biography in this book. The page reference given is the start of that biography. That individual may be mentioned before or after that page and in other chapters of the book; but, to index all those entries could prove confusing to the reader. Other individuals who had claims to royal or noble titles or who played an important part in the development of the histories included in this book may also be indexed.
