JACKTOWN: MICHIGAN'S 1ST PRISON

Arrive at the Historic Michigan Theatre of Jackson In the beautiful theatre, you will experience “Jacktown: The History of Michigan’s First State Prison.” Though this interactive program of live storytelling, film, archival photos, and audience participation, visitors see & hear intriguing tales of prison life, colorful inmates, wardens, night keepers, crime, punishments, riots, and reforms. Lunch. At lunch, visitors hear more fascinating and entertaining historical stories told by our guides about famous/infamous inmates. Your guides share stories about the historic prison that by 1882 became the largest walled prison in the world. They take you outside within the historic, castle-like prison walls; down to the old solitary area; into an artist’s studio displaying the remnants of the former prison cells from which the studio was carved; and into an apartment once a cell block of over 35 cells. Hear about prison life, conditions, punishments, reforms; colorful characters, corruption, ghosts and more. Witness how this old prison’s history is preserved within the re-purposing today of the only old prison turned into a residence with a focus on the arts, making the tour a fascinating architectural experience as well. Browse in the Old Prison Gift Shop.
