

Electronic Service of Discovery

The DeKalb County Prosecuting Attorney's Office is pleased to announce that our staff will begin to send discovery electronically to those criminal defense attorneys who so desire.

Any law practitioners who wish to participate need to complete the attached form.

Completion and submission of this form will enable our office to begin sending discovery electronically to your designated e-mail account.

Please note, by completing and submitting this form, you are agreeing to the acceptance of service of discovery through e-mail. You will not receive a subsequent "hard copy" of the same discovery. CD and DVD discovery will not be sent electronically. Furthermore, completion of this form acknowledges that you are aware that discovery is available for viewing in our office during office hours.
