

FREE DANCE CLASSES

Thursdays, May 4th – June 22nd, 2017

10:00 am to 11 am. Open Dancing and Socializing

11 am – 12 Noon. Dance Instruction

War Memorial Building

3325 Zoo Drive (end of Zoo Parking Lot)

San Diego, CA 92101

Would you like to learn to Fox Trot, Rumba and Cha-Cha? Then this dance class is for you. It's a dance class for those using wheelchairs or walkers as well as stand up people. You'll learn the most popular dancing moves while having lots of laughs and fun.

- Get ready to dance with us starting on Thursday, May 4th.
- Meet our Lead Professional Dance Instructor, Jason Rivers
His specialty is ballroom dancing and adaptive dancing.

There is a limited number of customized wheelchairs available for those using wheelchairs and walkers. First come get the best wheelchair to fit their body size.

Sponsored by the SD Park & Recreation Dept., Therapeutic Services

Call Beverly Weurding, 858-573-1571
for more information.

We are dedicated and committed to having every physically challenged individual experience the joy of "dancing on their wheels" and to empower each person to do something that is beneficial for their mind, body and spirit.

Donate

www.wheelchairdancers.org • a non-profit 501(c)

Like us on

