

Two Loves Have We

William Flanders

1. Two loves have we of boun-teous worth: our love of
2. The love of God must reign su - preme for man - y
3. The love of earth and earth to come is love e - 4. Be - tween two loves we may be caught, and feel to 5. Two loves have we: may each en - dure and make ful -

God, our love of all on earth. And though these loves be not op - minds, though sad that love would seem if from the world our care were nough and pas - sion - ate for some. To look be - yond they call es - choose be - tween these loves we ought. Or else, to keep our con - science fill - ment of the o - ther sure. The love of God our work here posed, one of - ten fal - ters as the o - ther grows.

turned, and all our striv - ing here on earth were spurned.
cape, and ir - re - spon - si - ble a heav'n-ward gape.
clear, up - hold them both, with nei - ther held too dear.
prod; the love of earth ex - press our love of God.