Mission Statement

We, the members of Saint Benedict Parish, in union with our Pastoral staff, our Bishop, and our Holy Father, and together with the Church of Altoona-Johnstown, commit ourselves to the building up of the Kingdom of God in our personal lives, within our families, within our Faith Community, and in society as a whole. We join with one another in prayer and public worship, in the practice of gracious hospitality, and in works of charity and mutual support. Mindful of the Lord's care and loving concern for our common welfare, and with profound Faith and great hope, we strive to accomplish the tasks at hand and to meet the challenges of the future so that in all things God may be glorified.

Please remember in your prayers the soul of our Parishioner Richard Prevost, husband of our Parishioner Rose Marie Prevost. May the angels lead you into paradise, may the martyrs come to welcome you, and take you to the holy city, the new and eternal Jerusalem.

Arise

At the invitation of Bishop Mark, our parish is beginning ARISE Together in Christ, a process of spiritual renewal presented throughout the Johnstown-Altoona dioceses. The ARISE Parish Team will continue to share information in future bulletin announcements.

Parish Photo Directories

If you have not yet picked up your Parish Photo Directory, they will be available for pick up after Masses this weekend or you may pick them up in the Parish Office during office hours. If you wish to purchase a directory, you will be placed on a waiting list to ensure those who were photographed receive their copy.

Needed for Festival

We are making an appeal to our Parishioners for Gold Medal or Pillsbury Flour, powdered sugar, and regular Oreo cookies. Please put in a bag marked "Altar Rosary-Festival". These items can be left at all exits of the Church. Your generosity to this appeal is greatly appreciated.

Donations of onions for the Ethnic Foods are needed Monday July 23rd and cucumbers are needed the week of July 22 for the Festival dinner.

Parish Festival

We are appealing to all of our Parishioners to help make our Parish festival the most successful ever! The weekend affair will be held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, July 27, 28, and 29. Please keep your schedule free for these days and plan to volunteer to work at one of our many booths or the Sunday dinner.

If you find any items that you can no longer use, why not put them in a box and donate them to our yard sale which will take place at this year's festival? Items may be dropped off at the School. No Electronics or clothing. For further information call or text Bob McGowan at 243-9421.

We will also need assistance with food preparation. If you are able to assist with making haluski and stuffed cabbage for the ethnic booth, please contact Martha Swarden at 344-8957; or with trimming chicken for the dinner, call Anna Mae Kelly at 344-8346.

Anyone wishing to do a basket for the Basket Auction should call Norma Farabaugh at 344-6356.

Business owners and managers are also asked to sponsor a sign for one of the festival booths. The price for the three-day event cannot be beat — $50-$75. Payment can be dropped off at the Parish Office.

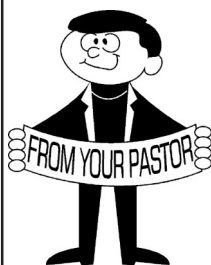

Don't miss our newest event: Car Cruise-In, on Saturday, July 28th from Noon to 5 p.m. on Church Street. For more information, Contact Linda Flora at (248) 789-0327.

Pastor's Reflection

Jesus loved to pray to His Father. Whenever He could, He would go off by himself to be alone. We all need time to be quiet to allow us to maintain balance, so that all of our decisions are the Will of God. Our acts of charity will bear fruit, if we live in the presence of the Lord.

Peace,
Father Jude

Families and the Gospel

Mark 6:30-34 In today's gospel "the apostles gathered around and told Jesus all they had done." Listening allows the other person to express, understand and appreciate their experiences. Whether it is the excited chatter of young children or the repetitious stories of an aging grandparent, listening is important. It is not just time well spent, it is sacred time.

Stewardship Reflections

How appropriate it is that the topic of today's summertime gospel is about the need for us to relax and renew ourselves. May we value our faith enough to make time daily to go "rest a while" to renew ourselves in the Lord. (Parish Life Office.)

Liturgical Reflection

By burying the bodies of the faithful, the Church confirms her faith in the resurrection of the body, and intends to show the great dignity of the human body. The Book of Genesis tells that we are each made in the image of God, in body and soul. The body of the deceased Catholic is the body once washed in the waters of Baptism. This body was anointed with the oil of salvation. This body ate and drank the very Body and Blood of Christ, the Bread of Life. It is the same body that reached out in service to the needs of others. Instruction Ad resurgendum cum Christo, Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, 2016, Number 3. (2018, Diocese of Altoona-Johnstown, Liturgy Office.)

Summertime Fun Overkill

Summertime is great because it offers us the opportunity to break the routine and get away for rest and relaxation. But some people work so hard at having fun during summer weekends that they have to drag themselves back to work on Monday morning!

These mad dashes to weekend fun spots only make us old and tired before our time. God's plan for a balanced life is for people to take time from their busy working lives to seek the peace and serenity of his presence in genuine worship.

Do take time for leisure and relaxation this summer. But remember that regular worship is also a part of God's re-creational plan for his people.

Diocesan Natural Family Planning Program:

Does your method of family planning

- ...strengthen your emotional intimacy with your spouse?
- ...work with (not against) the gift of your fertility?
- ...nurture a loving relationship with God and the Church?
- ...increase your self-respect and growth as a person/couple?

If you haven't checked out Natural Family Planning, you haven't made an informed choice. Certified diocesan instructors are located throughout our diocese. Contact the diocesan Family Life Office, 814-886-5551; familylife@dioceseaj.org; www.dioceseaj.org/family-life
